A black and white photograph of a long, empty school hallway. The hallway is lined with lockers on both sides, and the floor is highly reflective, mirroring the lights and lockers. The perspective is from one end of the hallway, looking down its length. The lighting is soft and even, creating a sense of depth and symmetry.

FOREWORD

The sands of time have sifted. This, the Crystal for 1960, marks the end of another phase in our lives. As we bid good-bye to these hallowed halls that have meant so much to us in the past four years, let us pause to look back on some of the activities and organizations that played such a large part in our lives during that time. Let us hope that through this annual our high school days will live forever.

Queen Jeanette displays a pretty smile.

Two lovely attendants join Sharon Byers, Queen Jeanette and the escorts in a smile for the camera.

A Royal Wave

Homecoming, 1959, will be remembered with Jeanette Kontak as the reigning queen and Emily Herbac and Betty Hall as her royal attendants.

In a thrilling moment, the queen is crowned.

Queen Jeanette, arrayed in a stunning red velvet dress, was escorted to her throne by Student Council President, Jerry Baumgartner. Em and Betty were escorted by co-captains Mike Crow and Bill Barthold respectively. Jeanette was then crowned by last year's queen, Miss Sharon Byers.

A congratulatory kiss from Jerry.

The Varsity players lead the grand march.

"Dashing through the gym . . ."

"Marching along together . . ."

22nd ANNUAL JAMBOREE

This year's Jamboree, which was presented by the A Cappella Choir, had a hill-billy theme. The Hatfields and the McCoy's were feuding families. However, when a movie company came to the hills, the feuding families were forced to reconcile in order to be in the movie. To further the plot, the movie director found her long, lost parents in the hills. All in all, it was a fine show loaded with singing talent. "Chief" and his choir were successful once again.

The Late Christopher Bean is a rousing comedy that depicts the confusion and misadventures that occur when a family of rather common means suddenly finds themselves the possessors of a number of very valuable paintings. The result is much confusion and loads of laughs.

When the curtain fell on this years senior class play, all remarked that, with the help of a fine cast of seniors, "Mr. P." had done it again.

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY

The roaring twenties, two college flappers, bed-bugs, measles, and safety pockets totaled up to irresistible comedy for this year's Junior Class Play.
